The Kings Thing's Educational Foundation

WHO ARE WE?

We are a hand full of extremely good-looking and smart genealogists that spend many hours each day researching and sharing our information. We created the Kings Thing's Educational Foundation (KTEF) in 2001, as a not-for-profit organization for genealogists, working to disperse information at no charge.

VISION STATEMENT.

Our vision is to provide a platform that will provide proven data in a tree structure that will be used in years to come.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Kings Thing's Educational Foundation (KTEF) is to assist our extended family in finding their roots and heritage, learning, and understanding their family history story, and leaving that legacy for future descendants.

We aim to help achieve that by: -

- Maintaining the highest level of professionalism, ethics, and research standards.
- Thorough, accurate, sourced and documented genealogical research backed up by sources and certification evidence.
- Delivering the highest quality of information that will become a treasured legacy to be handed down through the generations.

BEST GENEALOGY PRACTICES:

All information on this site uses: -

- Dates formatted as dd Mmm yyyy.
For example, 29 Apr 1770.
- Surnames are "as born" (nee), and in uppercase.
- All transcriptions are verbatim.
- All photos must be out of copyright and in the public domain.

All our work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 4.0 International License.
